

I Dreamed You

Written By James Chan

I dreamed you last night...

Sometime between early morning and dawn's twilight

Standing before you tongue tied tight as a tourniquet, just a fool with nothing to say So I sing...

And our hearts keep beat as my feeble feet desperately try not to trip on yours As you twist and twirl and sail into my arms so awkward we kiss and stare at the stars...

I dreamed I never woke up
