

Time Pressure

Written By
James Chan

Pressure builds
Steam blows
and kettle whistles

Building
Over time
Desperately seeking a way out
Into chaos
Volcanic catastrophe

Dr. Jekyll's jealous again
Fire water flows
Mr. Hyde rears his ugly head
Frothing at the mouth
Bursting at the seams

Pressure mounts
Steam builds
and kettle cries

Bloodshot and flooded eyes
Angel trumpets and devil trombones fill my ears

Wicked thoughts fill my head
Lovers laugh while I try to look on
But I luridly watch

Pleasure, guilt, longing, envy
All at once
All is red
Seeing red
Reason gone
Logic compromised

Pressure blows
Steam burns
and kettle screams

Object thrown Fist flies
Wall shakes Pain takes Reality sets in

I broke my fucking hand
